

Top Ten Reasons to go on Retreat with DYRT!

1. Young people desire to develop a better understanding of themselves and their relationship with God.
2. Our goal is to provide a hands-on experience of a lived faith: to expose young people to height, depth and breadth of our God.
3. Our retreats offer youth the opportunity to come away from their regular routine of school life and a chance to get away with other young people their age.
4. During our retreats, young people will encounter God's love through prayer, sacraments, fellowship and, above all, fun!
5. Young people will have the opportunity to build community and trust with one another by praying and playing together, and sharing their own thoughts, beliefs, questions and struggles.
6. Our retreat experiences give young people the opportunity to discover and encourage goodness in one another by working effectively as a member of a team.
7. Our retreats offer a unique opportunity to expose young people to the richness of our Catholic faith by taking 'religion' out of its familiar context.
8. Our retreats are designed to help students continue to integrate faith and spirituality with life.
9. Young people will experience the presence of Christ in their lives by uncovering the fingerprint of God in their daily experiences.
10. The faith of the of the team members is a witness to the young people that faith in God can be a desirable, acceptable and exciting part of their lives.
